AHISD GUIDELINES FOR TUITION STUDENTS

Since November 20, 2003, the Alamo Heights Independent School District has accepted a limited number of tuition students. Eligible students will be accepted at the following schools:

- Howard Early Childhood Center – 10 students – Children enrolling will not be eligible for Spanish Immersion or Dual Language
- Cambridge Elementary School—50 Students
- Alamo Heights Junior School – 30 students (10 per grade level)
- Alamo Heights High School—50 Students

Tuition students must meet the following criteria:

- Satisfactory discipline record from the sending campus
- Record of compliance with the Texas Compulsory Attendance Law
- Completion of all application paperwork within deadlines.

Students will not be accepted if their admission creates adverse conditions for AHISD in terms of space, financial exigency, or personnel or capital outlay requirements. Students must annually reapply to be accepted as a tuition student, and must make satisfactory academic progress, maintain acceptable conduct and attendance, comply with rules and regulations, and remain current on tuition payments throughout the previous academic year.

Applications for the 2023-2024 school year are now being accepted and may be obtained from the Office of the Superintendent (210-832-5953) or on the AHISD website.
